DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-64 are allowed.

Reasons for allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claims 1, 13, 25, 37, 44, 51, 58 and 63, the reference of Low (U.S. Pub. No. 2003/0018726) teaches a process for instant message using a wireless device and receiving message data to one of a plurality of IM or wireless device message protocol (see pages 1-2 sections [0014 and 0017]), and the IM user may request a chat session with the user of the device 32 (see page 3, section [0033]). However, the reference of Low alone or in combination with other prior art of record, fail to disclose; A wireless chat group system, comprising: a controlling computer having a processor that executes computer instructions; a wireless access point connected to the controlling computer; two or more wireless communication devices each having a processor that executes computer instructions wherein the wireless communication devices communicate with the wireless access point and wherein a first wireless communication device further comprises computer instructions that request a chat session by communicating with the controlling computer through the wireless access point; and wherein the controlling computer further comprises a chat group module having a chat group session manager and an address assignment module, the address assignment module further comprising computer instructions that assign a multicast internet protocol address to the chat session and the chat group session manager further comprising computer instructions that communicate a wake-up packet with the multicast internet protocol address to the wireless communications devices associated with the chat session and computer instructions that start a timer when the first wireless communication device completes its transmission over the multicast internet protocol address wherein the multicast internet protocol address for the chat session remains assigned to the chat session as long as another transmission over the multicast internet protocol address occurs before the timer times out as specified in independent claims 1, 13, 25, 37, 44, 51, 58 and 63.

Art Unit: 2618

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
